

Job Description for Litigation Associate

- Developing relationships with clients including gaining a good knowledge of the client's businesses, economic drivers, market and sector requirements in order to ensure advice is relevant and commercial.
- Engaging in business development activities and being active in the promotion of the firm and seeking opportunities for new work.
- Working as part of a team including assisting with the supervision of junior lawyers work and taking an active part in sharing knowledge and experience with the team.
- Candidates should have a strong knowledge regarding criminal and civil litigation, government Liaisoning cyber cell, Indian Penal Code and consumer protection should be willing to work in courts.
- Submitting interim applications
- Drafting of writ petitions, appeals etc